Reminder: Delta Independent Science Board seeks public comment on draft review of the Interagency Ecological Program

The Delta Independent Science Board (Delta ISB), which provides oversight of programs that support adaptive management, invites feedback on its draft review of the Interagency Ecological Program (IEP). The IEP has been a central hub of science in the Delta for decades, where it strives to provide science, synthesis, and service to policymakers and managers. This review looks into the organizational and programmatic business of the IEP to produce science to inform Delta management. Learn more about the IEP here and read the draft IEP review here. Written comments should be sent to disb@deltacouncil.ca.gov by July 26.
